❑ BENEFICIARY INFORMATION

PLEASE NOTE: We do not recommend that you name a minor child as your beneficiary. If you name a minor child as your beneficiary, any benefits due your minor beneficiary will not be payable until a guardian for the financial estate of the minor is appointed by the court or such beneficiary reaches the age of majority as defined by your state. If there is no beneficiary, Aflac will pay any applicable benefit to your estate.

If you reside in a community property state, are married, and designate a person other than your spouse as the primary beneficiary, your spouse may have rights to the death benefit of the policy/certificate under state law even if you choose not to name them as your beneficiary. We recommend submitting documentation signed by your spouse consenting to your beneficiary designation and waiving any right to proceeds payable under the policy/certificate. If you are unsure whether these laws apply to you, consult with your legal or tax advisor to determine whether submission of such documentation is necessary. Unless Aflac has been notified of a community or marital property interest in the policy/certificate, Aflac will presume that no such interest exists and disclaims any responsibility for determining the applicability of community property laws or the validity of the beneficiary designation. However, if your spouse claims a community property interest in the proceeds, it may delay in the payment of proceeds under the policy/certificate. By signing this form, you agree to indemnify and hold Aflac harmless from the consequences of making the designation requested in this form.
